

SERVICE TECHNICIAN
HARRISBURG, PA

Description: A&H is seeking a Service Technician that is responsible for repairing customers' equipment and has general product and equipment knowledge, strong mechanical skills with the ability to maintain a safe and clean environment. This position will directly report to the Service Manager and will need to obtain a professional work ethic with customers and A&H Team.

Responsibilities:

- Diagnose and troubleshoot standard mechanical, electrical, and hydraulic systems.
- Ability to install parts and add-on equipment as per install specifications
- Knowledge of functionality and operations of equipment
- Perform safety inspections on equipment
- Ability to operate a forklift with necessary certification
- Fabricating and welding knowledge a plus
- Assist department with various customer related issues (incoming calls, quotes, status of open jobs, etc.)
- Complete necessary paperwork as required
- CBT training certification

Requirements:

- Operating within all policies and procedures of the company
- Maintaining high personal morale.
- Maintaining excellent customer relations.
- Operating safely and following all safety guidelines.
- Computer & systems knowledge
- Driver's License
- Possess or Obtain a Class B CDL
- High school diploma
- Experience in field
- Willing to complete manufacturer training

A&H Benefits:

Tool Package Options Available

- Team-oriented & positive working environment
- Competitive hourly wage
- Medical Coverage
- Paid Uniform
- Paid Vacation
- 401K